

YOUR TALENT • OUR MISSION • BETTER GOVERNMENT

AFFILIATE SPONSOR

CHCI is a for-purpose organization that advises government organizations on best and next practices in strategic human capital management. CHCI serves as a trusted advisor, think tank, thought leader, educator, analyst and coach dedicated to advancing the science of talent management for organizations in the government sector. Our vision is a highly-engaged and productive federal workforce that is capable of fulfilling agency missions of today and tomorrow.

Our mission is to improve the effectiveness and efficiency of government operations through human capital transformations. We provide government leaders with valuable assessment tools, deployment advice, sound Human Capital Management analyses, as well as innovative insights related to talent strategy, acquisition, development, engagement, management and evaluation.

As an Affiliate Sponsor, your organization will enjoy a “trusted advisor” relationship with CHCI in which you play an active role in the accomplishment of our mission.

Your organization will receive the following benefits throughout 2011:

- Receive CHCI's quarterly Business Intelligence Newsletter for Human Capital Management in the Federal Government
- Nominate a project for an independent ROI analysis for one project delivered by your organization; the results will be posted on our TMGov.org portal
- Participate in current and proposed CHCI programs and events with access to key government leaders
- Be featured as an Affiliate Sponsor on CHCI's home page talent management web portal at www.TMGov.org, along with your tools, best practices and branded reports
- Host one webcast per year as a co-presenter or moderator
- Be featured at CHCI live events (in 2011, CHCI will attract a minimum of 300 government officials to its live events and conferences)
- Be a featured solutions partner for CHCI engagements
- Contribute one story per year to Leadership Excellence in Government magazine
- Press release announcing the affiliation
